A better title for this book would have been "Marilyn French's War Against Men". A classic piece of undiluted male bashing, sexism, prejudice and hate from the woman who first brought us gems like "All men are rapists and that's all they are".

The War Against Women book by Marilyn French

Dating the birth of male insecurity to a decrease in dependence on hunting in ancient matriarchal societies (which, French claims, led to defensive efforts to dominate women and nature through hunting cults, male initiation rites, male deities, and, eventually, the state-sanctioned "ownership" of women's bodies), the author asserts that today's nations continue to wage war against women: systemically, through organized religion and international economic policies that fail to value unpaid ...
